

CENTER FOR CAREER DEVELOPMENT

RECIPROCITY POLICY

The Reciprocity Policy of the UConn School of Law Center for Career Development (CCD) is as follows:

1. The primary source of reciprocity with UConn School of Law is through the Intercollegiate Job Bank, to which the CCD provides a monthly listing of job postings. The CCD strongly encourages participation in the Intercollegiate Job Bank.
2. Beyond access through the Intercollegiate Job Bank as described above, no reciprocity will be granted from July 1st through December 1st. In limited circumstances during the period of December 2nd through June 30th, at the discretion of the CCD and in consideration of past reciprocity extended to UConn Law School students/graduates, reciprocity may be granted to students/graduates of ABA accredited law schools ("Requesting Individuals"). In those limited circumstances, in order to be considered for reciprocity, the Requesting Individual's Career Office must formally submit a request by email to the CCD at law.careers@uconn.edu ("Email Request"). Should reciprocity be extended, it will be made available to the Requesting Individual for a maximum of three months, to commence on the date the CCD approves the Email Request and will end either (i) three months after reciprocity is granted; or (ii) June 30th of the given year, whichever occurs first.
3. If granted, reciprocity is provided in electronic format only and is available via Symplicity. Any and all passwords provided to a Requesting Individual pursuant to this policy are for use by that individual only and may not be shared with any other individual or group.
4. Reciprocity services only include electronic access to UConn law's Symplicity database for purposes of viewing employers and job postings. Reciprocity services do not include, for example, individual counseling or document review, participation in UConn Law events, participation in formal recruiting, or inclusion in any resume books.
5. Reciprocity is a privilege, and the CCD maintains the right to revise or discontinue this policy at any time and to refuse reciprocity to any or all Requesting Individuals with or without notice.

6. Students/graduates of UConn Law School who wish to request reciprocity from another school are limited to one reciprocity request to one school per semester. We encourage graduates to use the intercollegiatejobbank.com.

Center for Career Development
860-570-5320
law.careers@uconn.edu